About Waco

The city of Waco was founded on the banks of the Brazos River in 1849. Our city's proud history features the Waco Suspension Bridge, formerly the longest suspension bridge in the world; the Alico building, once the tallest building west of the Mississippi River; and the Dr. Pepper Museum, located a few blocks away from where Dr. Pepper was invented in 1885!

Today, Waco is a thriving diverse city with a strong economic base, an emerging entrepreneurial spirit, and is the proud home of the region's largest employer, Baylor University. Baylor is proud to call Waco and McLennan county our home and to partner in many ways with our city and county including through our Solid Gold Neighbor program and through our partnership with our local United Way.

Did you know?

Baylor University was chartered on February 1, 1845 by the Republic of Texas. One of the earliest co-educational universities in America when it opened, Baylor operated for its first 41 years in the tiny central Texas village of Independence. In 1886, Baylor relocated to its current home and merged with another Baptist college called Waco University.

Green and gold were first unveiled as the official school colors of Baylor University on March 25, 1897. Sara Rose Kendall of the class of 1902 is credited with suggesting the "lovely combination" after admiring a field of dandelions. The school colors made their official debut at a Glee Club concert in nearby Lorena, Texas.

The Bear was first announced as Baylor's official mascot on December 12, 1914 and was selected over other options such as the Ferret, Bookworm, Horned Frog, Bison, and Eagle. In 1918, the United States Army closed Camp MacArthur, a World War I camp in North Waco, and donated their live Bear to the University thus beginning over a century-long tradition of a live mascot living on campus. Today, sisters Lady and Joy are Baylor's on-campus live mascot residents!

Waco's Cameron Park is one of the largest municipal parks in the state of Texas. With miles of trails, stunning river views, and home to Waco's Cameron Park Zoo, the park is a favorite of locals and visitors alike. Dedicated in 1910, the land for the park was generously donated by local homebuilder and philanthropist William Cameron.

Have a great Day 1. . .and beyond!
